

EUROPEAN COLLEGE OF SPORT SCIENCE – STRATEGY MAP 2020-2025

VISION To lead the promotion and application of world-class, multi- and interdisciplinary science in sport, exercise, physical activity and health

MISSION	M1: Disseminate high quality innovative science and its application		M2: Empower the development of young scientists		M3: Build and retain an engaged ECSS community	M4: Develop strong partnerships within the private and public sectors
OBJECTIVES	Host an annual world-class congress	Publish a high impact journal	Promote excellence among young scientists	Support career development of young scientists	Provide high value membership	Foster sustainable relationships with external stakeholders
CORE AIMS	Deliver a quality assured annual congress of relevance and impact for members, delegates and partners  Deliver a high-quality congress experience in terms of location, venue, networking, social interaction, sustainability and social responsibility	Publish a high quality, innovative journal of high impact	Organise, manage and deliver a high-profile Young Investigators Award programme that showcases scientific excellence  Provide learning through exchanges, mentorships, workshops and networking opportunities	Provide professional development opportunities, including service to ECSS	Develop a membership model that builds belonging to and affiliation with ECSS  Promote the vision of ECSS globally	Develop and cultivate excellent relationships and key corporate partners that empower collaboration and innovation  Develop strong bonds of cooperation with exchange partners, scientific associations, academic institutes and policy makers to realise shared success
LEARNING &amp; DEVELOPMENT	Secure the future of the College through excellence in leadership
	Boards, committees, panels - Attract and support high profile committed members to boards, committees and panels		Office - Attract, develop and retain a high quality, experienced ECSS office team
FINANCE	Secure the financial sustainability of ECSS					